Thisell is a Swedish band that records and performs the songs of Peter Thisell. The group was formed around the creation of the debut album “I” in 2010. Since October 2013, Thisell has toured Europe eight times in support of “I”.

Thisell will go on tour throughout Europe in October-December in support of the album “II”. Thisell will be joined by the American singer/songwriter Ryan Lee Crosby on the “II” tour.

Thisell’s debut “I” is on Folk Radio UK's list of “Best Albums 2014,” Bonanza & Son's list of “Best Albums 2014” and the song “Lay Here” from “I” was on the pop-polit.de list of “Best Songs of 2014.”

The single “Rake” (Townes Van Zandt cover) will be released in the spring of 2016, containing alternative versions and outtakes from the upcoming album “II”.

“... Their sumptuous songs reminiscent of Gram Parsons & Neko Case in a snowstorm... Suddenly Neil Young turns up to save the day on his John Deere snow plough with Townes Van Zandt shoveling grit behind!” - Martyn Bonanza, Resonance FM

“The melted combination of lyrical tenderness and European and American influenced music on “I” comes to a kind of perfection.” - Israel radio station 106.fm

“Filled with honest and beautiful songs, the latest album (“I”) from the Swedish band THISSELL is a delight from beginning to end.” - Terrascope magazine
